BASED ON (CURRICULUM FEEDBACK ANALYSIS)
2022-23
SCHOOL OF LAW

Based on the Curriculum Survey conducted for the year 2022-23, sliding trend was observed (in regards to the preceding year's observations) in some of the vital parameters. To address the issues, following actions were taken by the department.

S.NO.	OBSERVATIONS	CORRECTIVE MEASURES
STUDENTS
1	Some of the students did not see the courses as helpful in developing their personality.	PSD classes are run for the students; however, it was observed that the attendance in these have been low. The coordinators counseled the students about the benefits of these classes in enhancing their employability in the current session.
2	A considerable number of students shared their discontent with the practicality and relevance of some subjects in getting the (desired) job.	The curriculum gets updated at regular interval to weed out any redundancy and make it practical, relevant in daily life and useful for professional growth. The revision in curriculum was done in BoS and necessary changes were made wherever deemed necessary.
TEACHERS
3	Not all the teachers found the syllabus increasing their knowledge.	The curriculum is planned and designed after a thorough deliberation on its suitability for the students. It takes into consideration various factors like their past educational background.
ALUMNI
4	Not all the former students feel that their curriculum was sufficient.	The curriculum gets updated at regular interval to weed out any redundancy and make it practical, relevant in daily life and useful for professional growth. The revision in curriculum was done in BoS.
5	Some of the alumni felt that their curriculum did not equip them sufficiently for their present professional role.	It was inferred that many students did not pursue their career in the field of law. Some of them also could not secure any opportunity too.
6	A considerable number of alumni	The HoD reviewed the faculty / resource persons revealed their discontent with the Special Training Classes organized by the university for bridging Industry-Academia gap.	(internal and external who delivered lectures in 2021-22) and their content for its acceptance, effectiveness and suitability. Many external domain / subject experts were invited by the department.

7	Some students opined that the University has not been successful in providing students with sound knowledge in their chosen area	The curriculum gets updated at regular interval to weed out any redundancy and make it practical, relevant in daily life and useful for professional growth. The revision in curriculum was done in BoS.
